More than bronze tubes below the belt plate represent a corded skirt, the remains of the woolen cord still preserved inside some of the tubes. Without giving any plot away I have to say that the scenes written around the ship wreck are among the most harrowing I have read, giving the reader a real sense of the danger, the fear, the heroics, the cold and the power of nature, truly a great section of the book. When, however, he called to mind that she could not always remain at that precise age, he decided that the balance of comfort was against it.
