There was always a bit of a romantic spark between us but the timing and circumstances were never right for us to do anything about it we were living hundreds of miles apart, or one of us had always just begun seeing someone on the occasions we met up. Social dancing is hard, because there's so much pressure to look cool, sexy, and fun - all while keeping to the rhythm and pretending your moves are completely spontaneous. In The Icicle Thief there is a quite unusual particularity in contrast to other postmodern films: TV, publicity, and cinema integrate together, and while the latter media criticizes TV and publicity, paradoxically it uses them to unwind the story. I am sure that if we teach migrants about Maltese culture - what it means to be Maltese who our forefathers were what a festa is how our political system works and so on - we will bridge the gap that is stopping many migrants from integrating he said.
